The most current data available are enclosed and includes official 10th-day Fall 1997 enrollment, faculty and staff data from the October, 1997 payroll, degrees conferred data for Fiscal Year 1997, and Fiscal Year 1998 budget data. In addition, historical data, for two through ten-year periods, as well as statewide comparative data are enclosed.

The availability of historical data as well as the information needs of Fact Book customers, for decision support, drives the final spreadsheets and graphs. Sources of the data are identified and encompass annual external reports to various state and federal agencies, internal databases, including the students and faculty/staff databases, and the cooperation of various on-campus units at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

Questions and comments regarding Fact Book 1997-98 are encouraged and welcomed as we attempt to meet the needs of the Fact Book customers. Again, methods of acquiring customer feedback included a mailed survey to all on-campus customers of the Fact Book. The input received is invaluable as the Fact Book continues to improve and evolve.

STATEMENT OF MISSION

Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, now in its second century, is a major public higher education institution dedicated to quality academic endeavors in teaching and research, to supportive programming for student needs and development, to effective social and economic initiatives in community, regional, and statewide contexts, and to affirmative action and equal opportunity.

Enrolling students throughout Illinois and the United States and from a large number of foreign countries, SIUC actively promotes the intellectual and social benefits of cultural pluralism, encourages the participation of non-traditional groups, and intentionally provides a cosmopolitan and general education context which expands student horizons and leads to superior undergraduate education.

Seeking to meet educational, vocational, social and personal needs for its diverse population of students and helping them fully realize their potential is a central purpose of the University. Emphasis on accessibility and regional service which creates distinctive instructional, research, and public service programs also gives SIUC its special character among the nation's research universities, and underlies other academic developments, such as its extensive doctoral programs and the schools of medicine and law.

Committed to the concept that research and creative activity are inherently valuable, the University supports intellectual exploration at advanced levels in traditional disciplines and in numerous specialized research undertakings, some of which are evolved from staff and facility strengths, and mature in keeping with long-term preparation and planning.

Even as the University constantly strives to perpetuate high quality in both instruction and research, it continues a long tradition of service to its community and region. Its unusual strengths in the creative and performing arts provide wide-ranging educational, entertainment, and cultural opportunities for its students, faculty, staff, and the public at large. Its programs of public service and its involvement in the civic and social development of the region are manifestations of a general commitment to enhance the quality of life through the exercise of academic skills and application of problem-solving techniques. The University seeks to help solve social, economic, educational, scientific, and technological problems, and thereby to improve the well being of those whose lives come into contact with it.

Approved by the SIU Board of Trustees at the October 13, 1988 Meeting

SIUC PROFILE 1997

Faculty

The University faculty is dedicated to excellence in teaching and to the advancement of knowledge in a wide variety of disciplines and professions. SIUC's faculty members are well known both nationally and internationally for their varied research contributions.

Distance Learning

SIUC is a full member of two Illinois Regional Higher Education Consortia, namely the Southern Illinois Collegiate Common Market (SICCM) and the Southwestern Illinois Higher Education Consortium (SIHEC), participating in a state-wide initiative to use distance learning (two-way interactive video and audio) technology to offer courses at off-campus sites. In addition, the Telemedicine Network connects southern Illinois medical and educational facilities with the SIU School of Medicine in Springfield. The University's distance learning initiative is part of a broader effort to serve underserved areas and address the State's workforce issues.

Student Diversity

The State of Illinois ranks 5th nationally in the enrollment of international students. SIUC's student body includes 1392 international students from nearly 100 countries. Besides the international campus at Nakajo, Japan, SIUC has over 70 active international exchange agreements with countries around the world.

SIUC ranks 12th among predominantly white schools in the nation, and first in Illinois, for the number of African-American students who earn bachelor's degrees. (Black Issues in Higher Education, May 1997, 1994-95 data.) In Fiscal Year 1997, over 9 percent of SIUC doctoral degrees went to African Americans.

SIUC's student enrollment is made up of 56 percent men and 44 percent women.

In the 1950s, SIUC became one of the first campuses in the nation to become physically accessible to individuals with disabilities. Students with disabilities make up 3 percent of the total enrollment.

SIUC students at off-campus sites across the U.S. make up 11 percent of the total student enrollment.

Research

During FY 97, the University received 715 grant and contract awards totaling $38.7 million from outside agencies for research, training, and service projects (excluding awards administered by the Financial Aid Office). Research grants and contracts accounted for $19.6 million of the total. In addition, around 100 research and creative projects are funded each year through several internal grants programs coordinated by the Office of Research Development and Administration. Specialized SIUC research units include the Coal Research Center, the Cooperative Wildlife Research Laboratory, the Cooperative Fisheries Research Laboratory, the Materials Technology Center, the Center for Advanced Friction Studies, the Center for Archaeological Investigations, the Center for Dewey Studies, the Paul Simon Public Policy Institute, the Center for Rural Health and Social Service Development, the Center for Injury Control and Worksite Health Promotion, the Pontikes Center for Management of Information, and the Center for Alzheimer Disease and Related Disorders at the School of Medicine in Springfield.

University Income Funds are those funds which receive revenues, such as fees and tuition at State-supported institutions of higher education. These funds are used for the support, operation and improvement of State-supported colleges and universities, and no longer require legislative appropriation. (Source: Comptroller's Uniform Statewide Accounting System-Procedure 09.10.20)

This definition is adhered to when enrollment data is reported to the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS). (Source: National Center for Education Statistics)

Headcount is defined as the count of each student enrolled for one or more courses taken in a semester following the 10th day of the semester's start.

It is calculated by dividing total credit hours enrolled by 15 for an undergraduate student and total credit hours by 12 for a graduate student for a semester. This definition is adhered to when enrollment data is reported to the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS). (Source: National Center for Education Statistics)

Non-persisting indicates a student who is no longer enrolled at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale in any program. Furthermore, this term is used to identify a student who is enrolled at some point within an academic year but does not return the following year.

This definition is adhered to when faculty data is reported to the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) and American Association of University Professors (AAUP). (Sources: National Center for Education Statistics and American Association of University Professors). Full time is defined as a 100 percent appointment.

NOTES:

- (1) Each graduation year contained all recorded graduations of students in a given cohort during December, May, and August.
- (2) Each cohort consisted of all new full-time freshmen entering SIUC in the respective summer and continuing into fall or entering in that fall semester for the first time. Only on-campus, degree-seeking students are included in each cohort. All cohorts were tracked through Summer Semester, 1997.
- (3) Non-persisting indicates that a student was enrolled at some point that year, but did not return the following year. For example, non-persisting after year 2 means a student was enrolled at some point during year 2, but did not return in year 3.

- (2) Graduate students' fees are $3.00 less than the total fees reported because they are not assessed the Student-to-Student Grant Program Fee.
- (3) Room and Board charges are based on double occupancy and includes an activity fee.
- (4) CPI and HEPI not available for 1997-98.
- (5) Non-resident tuition is three times that of resident tuition.

(2) Decrease in Northeastern Illinois University's Tuition and Fees for 1990 to 1991 reflects the non-inclusion of optional health Insurance charges for 1991.

(3) Tuition and fee charges reflect 15 credit hours per semester beginning Fall 1993. Prior to Fall 1993 tuition and fee charges reflect 12 semester hours.

Includes only data for the Carbondale campus; contributions to the State Retirement System paid on behalf of Carbondale campus employees are not included in the total current funds expenditures.
- Prior to FY96, grants and contracts revenues from foreign government sources were included as Local Government. As of FY96, foreign government grants and contracts revenues are included as Private Gifts, Grants and Contracts.
- Auxiliary enterprises are operated primarily for service to students and staff and are intended to be self supporting, such as housing, Student Center, and Student Recreation Facility.
- Mandatory transfers are transfers from the current funds group to another fund group as required by a legal agreement.
An example is the Perkins Loan program which requires the institution to provide matching funds. Nonmandatory transfers are transfers from the current funds group to another fund group at the discretion of management.
